Bible Verses:

- Mark 3:1-6, NIV

Key Points

1. Describe what kind of person comes to your mind when you think of the word "Christian"?
2. Read Mark 3:1-6.
The passage is about a man with a shriveled hand. What intrigues, perplexes or surprises you from this passage?
3. Why do you think the response of the religious leaders is to plot to kill Jesus after he had done such a good thing?
4. Have you ever had an experience where religion or the church actually seemed to hurt people instead of helping them?
5. Our tendency is to excuse our own sin while convicting others for theirs. Can you think of a time when you've given yourself a break but have been hard on someone else for the same thing?

Why do we do this?

6.	Jesus was different. What made him different?
7.	How are you supposed be different by virtue of being a follower of Jesus?
