Message Title: Fear Not Shepherds Being Good Enough

Teaching Pastor: Brian C. Hughes

Bible Verses:

- Luke 2:8-11, NIV

Key Points

1. There are some key players in the Christmas story. Think about it like a movie: there are the stars - the central characters. Jesus would be the star. Maybe Mary, too. Then there are 'supporting actors' who are very important, but not central. For the Christmas narrative, shepherds, wise men, Zechariah and Elizabeth, the Innkeeper, John the Baptizer might be in those roles.

Here's your assignment: Choose one. Choose any one of the people in the Christmas story and read your Bible about that person. Let God speak to you through that person's story and life.

The key question is: How does God want you to change because of that story?

What does He want you to know?

What does He want you to do differently?

	2. We talked about the Shepherds, they were so unqualified. But God used them in an important way. Why did God choose them instead of people who were more religiously astute or better connected or more charismatic? What does that say about your life?
	3. Has God ever asked you to do something that you didn't feel qualified to do? What was it? What happened?
	4. What might God be asking you to do now, that you are not qualified to do?
