Teaching Pastor: Angie Frame

This study guide has been designed for Small Groups in mind, and can be used by individuals as well.

Name a song that you've shared with someone via mixed tape, CD, Spotify, or otherwise. (You might even listen to bits of songs that people name, particularly if there's one you don't know.)

Share a story of how someone was extra, over-the-top, extravagant when flirting with you.

Re-read Matthew 5:27-30. What do you think about how Jesus redefines adultery?

What boundaries could be put in place to keep from looking at someone lustfully...

- on TV and movies?
- online?
- who's a stranger?
- whom you interact with on a regular basis?

What boundaries do you have for yourself, and/or your relationship regarding flirting?

How can we help each other think before we flirt, and protect ourselves and our relationships?

What's our boundary going to be for how to have those conversations with one another?
